THE BEE HIVE.

A Feast of Bargains

FOR THANKSGIVING WEEK!

If selling trustworthy merchandise at prices much lower than ever known before is any reason for your "giving thanks," you'll find innumerable causes for gratitude at our store from now until Thanksgiving Day. It will be expensive for us, but we'll make better friends of you.

GIVE THANKS FOR THESE.

Your choice of our entire line of Calicoes, over 700 bolts, including Fancy Prints, Best Blues, Turkey Reds, Black and White, Silver Grays, Comfort Calicoes. Every piece guaranteed "full standard," and never sold under 5c. to 6 1/2c. a yard. Our Thanksgiving price 4c. a yard. Simpson's Solid Black Prints 3c. a yard. Other prints 3c. a yard. Remember, the above bargain feast ends on Thanksgiving Day.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTS.

Prices are cut to make you thankful. A great 10-4 Blanket in white or gray, 39c. a pair. A very superior Blanket, worth fully $1, at 79c. a pair. Our special price breaker is a 11-4 Blanket of ordinary $2 value, our price $1 25. Comforts range in price from 39c. to $2. We warrant prices at least 30 per cent. below others.

BUY YOUR TURKEYS

From the savings you can make in our CLOAK DEPARTMENT. Our Cloak business has been immense. These prices will tell you why: Superior Cloth Capes trimmed with braid and ornamental buckle at 69c., 89c. and $1 19. A double Kersey Cloth Cape and a beautiful Bonole Cape, both trimmed with fur, would be cheap at $2 75, our price $1 98. Our Ladies' and Misses' Jackets at $4 95 outwit all competition. And those Infant Cloaks at 98c. are eagerly purchased by thankful and prudent mothers.

MISCELLANEOUS THANKSGIVING SUGGESTIONS.

No description necessary; prices do all the talking. Savon Suinta Soap, 3 cakes to a box, 3c. a box, 2 boxes for 5c. Olive Oil Castle Soap, 5c. a double cake. When your friends at home send to your friends abroad a copy of the Thanksgiving number of THE LEDGER, don't you think your friends abroad will be disappointed if they do not find your card in it? It will cost you only $2 to have a nice card inserted, and the money will be spent here at home, and the chances are that you'll get it back, with a good deal more to boot.

It has been suggested that the new Opera-house be christened with a home entertainment. It will be finished amid-season, when all the good attractions are "booked," and the chances of getting a first-class professional company will be slim. Maysville can furnish enough home talent—dramatic and musical—to provide a most enjoyable evening; and as the house has been built by home people, it will be quite fitting to open it with a home company. THE LEDGER will be pleased to hear expressions from our citizens, pro and con.

His Honor Judge Schwab of the Cincinnati Police Court is coming up this week to join His Honor Judge Wadsworth of the Maysville Police Court in a few days hunt.

And when the Judges bring their guns
To bear upon the quail,
Their legal minds will mentally
Say "Thirty days in Jail!"

Then if his quailship does not fall
At end of the first shoot,
They'll make the dose the stronger by
A fine of ten to boot.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

A Maysville Man Soon to Wed a Former Louisville Lady.

The marriage of Mr. Joseph Baron Blatterman to Miss Anne Escott will be an event of Thursday, December 8th.

The bride was raised in Louisville, but has recently made her home with a sister, Mrs. McDonald, of Florida.

The marriage ceremony will occur at Gramede, the plantation home of the McDonalds, situated very near Orlando.

The witnesses will be relatives and intimate friends and the ceremony used that of the Presbyterian rite, to which faith both bride and groom belong.

The wedding journey will consume a week, after which Mr. and Mrs. Blatterman will come to Maysville to reside with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blatterman of West Fourth street.

UNEXPECTED WEDDING.

Judge A. E. Cole of This City Married to a Central Kentucky Lady.

A wedding which will come in the nature of a surprise occurred a day or so since, in which a prominent Maysville gentleman was a central figure.

Mr. Allen D. Cole Saturday received a telegram announcing the marriage of his father, Judge A. E. Cole, to Mrs. Belle Newman, formerly of Sonora, Hardin county.

The family and friends of Mr. Cole were not aware of his intentions when he left home a few days ago, and beyond the brief telegram stating that he was married and would arrive with Mrs. Cole at his home in this city tonight, nothing is known of the event.

The groom is one of the ablest lawyers in this section of the state, prominent not only in Maysville but in surrounding cities where he has a large practice, and THE LEDGER, with his host of friends, tenders on this happy occasion most sincere congratulations.

LETTER CHAIN.

Supply a Link to Buy a Piano For the New Opera-House.

THE LEDGER is requested to ask those persons of our city who have received letters which form the chain, the proceeds of which are to buy a piano for the Opera-house, to respond with promptness, either sending the money requested or to notify Miss Blatterman, treasurer of the fund, of their unwillingness to contribute so the links may be supplied and the chain continued to its completion.

It is a small amount and can easily be given by each person from whom the favor is asked. Do not longer defer but respond, as the instrument is to be purchased and placed for the opening night.

TURKEY TRAINS.

Seven Carloads of Thanksgiving Turkeys From Bluegrass Towns.

The first turkey train of the season sent from the Bluegrass to the Eastern markets was sent out from Paris Saturday over the Louisville and Nashville.

It contained seven cars and was made up of carloads shipments from Paris, Richmond, Carlisle, Flemingsburg, Winchester and Austerlitz.

Several more trains may be sent out from Paris before Thanksgiving.

Turkeys are selling at 8 cents per pound on foot in Paris, though the turkey crop in Bourbon is larger than it has been for many years. A carload lot was shipped West from this city last week by Brightman Bros., and more will follow this week, shipments being made by Colonel John Y. Dean of the Maysville Produce Co. and by Mr. Everett Brightman.

Hechinger's

The crowd of buyers increases daily, and is the best possible proof of every statement made and the genuineness of every garment offered.

There is not another Clothing Store in Kentucky today that enjoys the confidence of the public to the high degree ours does. There is satisfaction in dealing in a store where a customer that absolutely knows nothing of values in goods shares the same treatment that an expert commands.

We briefly call your attention to a few of the many good things we want you to partake of: A great line of

Cheviot and Serge

Suits, Single and

Double-Breasted

From $7.50 to $15

The latter price buys a Suit equal if not superior to the average custom tailor's subject.

COVERT OVERCOATS.

In Overcoats we have the top notch. Our Covert Overcoats in the newest shades are sold by us exclusively at $8.50 to $15. The latter price secures a garment that in every respect will be found equal to Coats that sell elsewhere at $20 to $25.

OUR HATS

From 98c. to $3 are all right, or we would not do the Hat business of the town.

OUR SHOES.

Our Men's and Boys' Shoes command the attention of those that want good footwear.

Thanksgiving Nine Days Distant?

Oh, no! Thanksgiving is right here. Textile Thanksgiving is holding court in our windows and on our counters. The Thanksgiving Table is set. Table Damasks, Table Covers, Napkins and Doilies are posing for your admiration.

BATTERED GOODS**

Some dainty conceits for Christmas gifts. None too soon to prepare, better now while things are fresh. These beauty-bits are easy to hide away. Small doilies 25c., 35c.; large ones 45c. and 50c. Higher priced ones, too.

GLOVES**

Bargains! Don't think the less of the Gloves. It's Thanksgiving selling. We have the best dollar Gloves that money can buy. That's putting it strong, but we're very earnest in this Kid Glove matter. Better gloves for $1 there are none. Glove art reaches its highest possibility in the Fedora. Two, clasps, embroidered backs, black, white, colors.

WOMEN'S WRAPS**

$5, $7, $8 and $10 do large duty in wrap buying this fall. There is service and style in the garments, too. Just a descriptive word to set you thinking: $5 Covert Cloth Jacket, the new Crede style, notched collar, tailor back, flap pockets, lined with satin rhadame. Match them elsewhere for $7. $8 50 the new Sadler Short Coat, cut after a late London model—a coat to win approving looks from feminine eyes.

DRESS GOODS**

Lowness of price is only one factor, highness of quality and general rightness is equally important. These lots are worthy bargains from every standpoint.

SCOTCH MIXTURES**

50c. quality at 39c.; 65c. quality at 50c.; 89c. quality at 75c. Of pure wool and from a mill that keeps it standard at highest notch. These goods are dressy, yet they'll stand the wear and tear of knockabout use.
